“Happy Father's Day,” to all our dad's today. Thank God this day for His blessings of our children. But most of all thank Him for being the Father of us all, for there is none like Him! Amen!

Welcome to all for doing as God requested, to in Heb. 10:25; Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

Please keep in prayer: our troops, government leaders, our Evangelist, Sister Mary Adams, Lay Witness For Christ Ministry, Dr. Sam and Sharon Mings, Israel, all churches, our prayer box, all the sick people, and the web site gospellighthouseoutreach.com . We put prayer request from our members and from the web site into our prayer box and have all our children gather round the prayer box to help pray over the names in the box each time we have service.

Our scripture for this week: Deut. 6:6-9; <sup>6</sup>And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: <sup>7</sup>And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. <sup>8</sup>And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. <sup>9</sup>And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

Happy Father's Day Dads!

Father's Day is here again and we are in a rush to get to the store to buy that tie he does not need or the tool set that he got another like three years ago! Forget it all!! This year just walk up to your parent and say, “Daddy, I love you.” Then sit down and just spend time with him and talk to show your affection! But while we are on the subject of Daddy's or Father's I'd like to insert something here that you may not know!

I know we show honor to our dads by calling them father but read Matthew 23:8-10; <sup>8</sup>But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren. <sup>9</sup>And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven. <sup>10</sup>Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

After reading the whole chapter I wondered why we're told not to call no man father upon the earth: for one is your father which is in heaven. Then it came to be read Matthew 6:9-13, The Lord's Prayer, <sup>9</sup>After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. <sup>10</sup>Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. <sup>11</sup>Give us this day our daily bread. <sup>12</sup>And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. <sup>13</sup>And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

It came to me that He wants us to know that we are all brother's and sister's in Christ and He alone is our Father. He is the one who loved us enough to die for us, then rose and ascended to heaven, and is sitting at the right hand of God making intercession for the children. He wants us to put Him first in all things, to honor His name. There is no one to be ahead of Him, worship Him and Him alone. Then if we get it right we will be with Him in His kingdom, heaven, the final dwelling place of the Saints, where there is room for all believers, and most of all built by God's hand. Read Heb.11:10 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Isn't it wonderful we have such a carpenter, savior, master and father! Children obey and love your parents for it's God's will!
